DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
  - I. Claims 1-7 and 20-22 are drawn to a cover, with two layers, a top layer and a bottom layer, wherein the top layer contains an additional portion that is adapted to be separated or removed from the top layer and the removable portion represents a coupon, premium, promotion or other advertisement, classified in class 705, subclass 14.
  - II. Claims 8-19 are drawn to an enclosure having a coupon, premium, promotion, or other advertisement integrally formed therein and consists of a container and a cover, where the cover is adapted to be coupled with the container and contains two layers, a top layer and a bottom layer, wherein the top layer contains a removable piece, classified in class 705, subclass 14.
  - III. Claims 23-29 are drawn to a container with two layers, an inner layer and an outer layer, wherein the outer layer contains an additional portion that is adapted to be separated or removed from the outer layer and the removable portion represents a coupon, premium, promotion or other advertisement, classified in class 493, subclass 51.

Art Unit: 3622

2. The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:
3. Inventions in group I and group II are related as combination and subcombination. Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed the advertisement is disclosed as being integrally formed into the enclosure and thus may be integrally formed into the container. The subcombination group I has separate utility such as presenting advertising material to a customer on a lid that is not coupled to a container.

The examiner has required restriction between combination and subcombination inventions. Where applicant elects a subcombination, and claims thereto are subsequently found allowable, any claim(s) depending from or otherwise requiring all the limitations of the allowable subcombination will be examined for patentability in accordance with 37 CFR 1.104. See MPEP § 821.04(a). Applicant is advised that if any claim presented in a continuation or divisional application is anticipated by, or includes all the limitations of, a claim that is allowable in the present application, such claim may be subject to provisional statutory and/or nonstatutory double patenting rejections over the claims of the instant application.

Art Unit: 3622

4. Inventions in group I and group III are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different designs, modes of operation, and effects (MPEP § 802.01 and § 806.06). In the instant case, the different inventions are a cover adapted for presenting advertising and a container with an integrally formed removable section on its outer surface and no disclosure is made regarding the use of the removable section.
5. Inventions in group II and group III are related as combination and subcombination. Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed, an advertisement is disclosed as being integrally formed into the enclosure and thus may be integrally formed into the lid. The subcombination group III has separate utility such as a container without a lid, that contains a removable outer surface.
6. Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and there would be a serious burden on the examiner if restriction is not required because the inventions require a different field of search (see MPEP § 808.02), restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Art Unit: 3622

7. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.

8. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
9. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to John Van Bramer whose telephone number is
